

An aerial photograph of a rural landscape. A large, irregularly shaped parcel of land is highlighted in a solid green color. A red location pin is placed on the green parcel, with the alphanumeric code 'V5060002' written in white text next to it. The surrounding area includes various agricultural fields in shades of brown, tan, and green, as well as a residential neighborhood with houses and streets in the upper right corner. A winding road or canal is visible in the lower right portion of the image.
